Dear Bob:

Enclosed are brief descriptions of ten projects that Rand is prepared to undertake for the Director's office, the National Intelligence Council and the National Foreign Assessment Center during Fiscal Year 1982. A formal proposal in the amount of [Redacted] for FY 1982 and [Redacted] for FY 1983 has been submitted under separate cover.

STAT

It will not be possible to conduct more than a few of these projects within the total contract amount proposed for FY 1982. We suggest that [Redacted] be allocated to project research and conferences. An additional [Redacted] would be set aside to cover new project initiatives as they arise during the year and to provide funds for special assistance on an as-needed basis. This allocation of funds would allow us to initiate three or four projects on the enclosed list during FY 1982 in accordance with your priorities. A research agenda for Fiscal Year 1983 will be developed at a later date.

STAT

I am looking forward to discussing these proposed projects with you, John McMahon and Harry Rowen in the near future.

Sincerely,

STAT
